

Forest Riots And Are You Wearing That T-Shirt

Shocking footage has emerged of the moment the criminal thug John Harris held a gun to the head of William Watkins. The policeman was trying to arrest Harris for riotous assembly. Harris fired the gun but it failed to go off. He is now being held on remand and has been charged with attempted murder

Earlier feral thugs and criminals had ransacked enclosure fences and government property throughout the Forest of Dean led by the hooligan Warren James. The authorities believe that gang members were using secret flyers to communicate with each other

Woodman cottages were ransacked and the wives and children threatened with violence. Reports have come though of children having to hide under tables as the thugs destroyed their garden and attempted to set fire to their houses. Houses of local respectable gentry, who feared for their lives, were also attacked. Gardens and orchards were looted.

The rioters were high on cider and threatened to attack any member of the authorities who tried to stop them committing violence. Shocking images have emerged of feral children and young women committing acts of great violence against enclosure fences.

Home secretary, Lord Melbourne, said the criminals will be hunted down and brought to justice. Gang leader James was captured cowering in a coal mine after a respectable member of the community had reported his whereabouts to the authorities. Our research shows that all sections of the community are baying for him to be hung by the neck until dead.

Lord Melbourne has spoken of the moral degeneracy of a section of the forest community. Many come from dysfunctional families, do not work and live off of hand outs. Lack of discipline meant the feral youth were often seen in gangs wandering around the Forest unsupervised. Many refused to work and made a living stealing wood, poaching and running animals illegally on crown property.

Respectable members of the community have been asked to identify any criminals and report them to the authorities. Some thugs have been seen inciting violence by wearing t-Shirts showing a picture of an act of outright vandalism and criminality. The authorities will be hunting down and punishing anyone caught in possession material connected with violent disorder. One man has already been sentenced to four years of hard labour for wearing the t-shirt.

John Sweetey BB (we are shit scared of losing our gov. funding) C

All of the above events happened in 1831 (except for the T-Shirt) in the Forest of Dean but with a slightly contemporary narrative!